2.—The following pres
is partly statutory.

Number and Length

DAY SCHOOLS

(1) Each inspector is expected to make as heretofore, duri half year, at least one visit to each classroom in his inspectorate.

(2) The length of each visit should be determined by the Inspector's judgment as to the needs of the school.

(3) The Inspector shall visit a school taught by an inexperienced teacher as soon as practicable after the teacher begins his duties. The Inspector should visit as often as the circumstances may demand and his other duties will permit, such teachers and others who need additional supervision from any other cause.

(4) Where the conditions of work make it impossible to pay an adequate number of visits to schools taught by inexperienced teachers, the inspector may secure the necessary time to do this by decreasing the length and frequency of his visits to schools taught by experienced teachers of proved efficiency.

(5) In the case of city inspectorates the board may, subject to the approval of the Minister, determine the number of visits and prescribe for the inspector such additional duties as the Minister may deem to be in the interests of education.

(6) If, owing to unavoidable causes, the inspector cannot visit every school each half-year, he may visit a school more than once in a half-year, but he shall allow a reasonable interval between visits.

NIGHT SCHOOLS

7 The number and length of visits of inspection of Night Schools to be paid each term by each inspector should be determined by the same conditions as determine the visits to the Day Schools.

3. REPORTS, GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

(1) (a) The Inspector shall make a general annual report as to the performance of his duties and the conditions of the schools in his inspectorate, and in the case of city inspectorates he shall make a report also to the board of trustees of the city in which he is an inspector.

(b) He shall also furnish the Minister with such other reports as may be required and any information respecting any school in his inspectorate wherever so requested.
